WASHINGTON CITY: TUESDAY ...... JUNE 7, 1864.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE BEE OUTSIDE FOR INTERESTING TELE-GRAPHIC AND OTHER MATTER.

FREMONT'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE, The statements and views or Fremont's letter of acceptance of the nomination of the Cleveland Bolter's Convention printed elsewhere in to-day's Star, are precisely those of the Vallandighamers. His bill of indictment against President Lincoln and the administration is but word for word that which the New News et al daily reiterate. All who believe it true will of course vote for the bitterest copperhead who may be nominated by " the peace party," which will be but carrying out Fremont's wishes, as he expressly declares that he accepts the nomination only for the purpose of defeating the re-election of President Lincoln, which is to be accomplished only by the election of some copperhead.

With reference to the particulars of his accusation we have but to call public attention to the well-known fact that he, as commander of the Department of Missouri, was the first man to set law and Constitution at defiance in working out upon individual citizens what he pretended to be necessary for the success of the Union cause as involved in the rebellion in that State. It is notorious that for months before the President was compelled for the safety of the State to de things affecting the rights of individuals not authorized by the civil law. No man's property or liberty was safe in Missouri if he stood in the way of Fremont's selfaggrandizement, or of the thieving schemes of the band of robbers immediately surrounding his person. That he should enter a Vallandigham protest against the Government's infringement of civil rights is therefore simply a glaring paradox.

All men of common sense will realize this fact as clearly as they realize the inconsistent mendacity of his man Friday-ex-General Justus McKinstry-in impudently reporting, in the Cleveland Convention, their resolution proclaiming the necessity for less corruption on the part of government officials: McK. having been himself the first man charged, tried, convicted and punished for wholesale robbery of the government and army!

From the Front-Everything Going on Weil-From the Southwest-Gen. Sherman within Six Miles of Marietta.

WASHINGTON, June 6, 1861. To Major General Dix, New York:

Despatches have been received from General Grant's headquarters to-day, but they report only certain changes in the position of corps and contemplated operations. They state that everything is going on well. The Chief Quartermaster of the army reports a personal inspection of the depot at White House; it is in a most efficient state, all needful supplies are on hand, and wagons to transport them easily

The wounded are being brought in and transported, and are not delayed A despatch from Gen. Sherman, dated noon to-day, at Ackworth, says :- " I am on the railroad at Ackworth Station, and have full possession forward to within six miles of Marietta. All is well."

No other military intelligence has been received to-day. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

FOR THE FRONT. The 155th and 156th Ohio regiments (one hundred days' men) left this city this morning on board the steamer S. R. Spaulding for the White House, to join Gen. Grant's army. These regiments are a fine body of troops, and will doubtless be of efficient service in the Army of

ASSEMBLING OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

BALTIMORE, June 7 .- The National Union Convention assembled this morning at the Front Street Theater, the same building where. four years ago, the democratic party hopelessly split upon the rock of discord. The building has been tastefully decorated and fitted up for the occasion. The entire stage is thrown open. The president's chair is on an elevated platform at the extreme end, under a canopy of flags. A numerous staff of pages are in attendance, with tri-colored badges; also, telegraphic messengers to convey despatches direct from reporter's tables to the instruments in the lobbies. The doors were opened at 11 o'clock, and the building soon commenced to fill with delegates and spectators. The latter are admitted only to the galleries. The dress circle is reserved for ladies. There are nearly 600 delegates present, including many from remote Territories. New Mexico has sent as delegates Hon. J. G. Watts, J. C. Francisco, and Joshua Jones, jr.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION. Caucus of the Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Ohio Delegations.

[Dispatch to Philadelphia Inquirer.] BALTIMORE, June 6.—Among the arrivals to-day are H. J. Raymond, Gen. Cameron, Thurlow Weed, Simeon Draper, Lymon Tremain, Preston King, Gov. Randall, Gov. Morgan, Honorale E. McPherson, and others of less notoriety. The Pennsylvania delegation, at Barnum's, had a caucus this afternoon; Ges. Cameron was chairman. It was unanimously agreed to vote for Mr. Lincoln for President to-morrow.

Mr. Lowry moved that General Cameron be presented by the delegation as Vice President. Mr. Cameron declined being in Mr. Hamlin's way, and moved that he (Mr. Hamlin) be sustained by the delegation. Agreed to. Thadeus Stevens was named by General

Cameron as President of the Convention, but he declined the honor, and the caucus adjourned to meet in the morning. The New York delegation met to-night at the Entaw House. Ex-Governor King was chairman, and after considerable cancusing they took a vote upon the Vice President, which resulted as follows: Hamlin, 28; Dan. Dickinson, 16; Lyman Tremain, 8; Andrew Johnson, 8: scattering 1. Tremain then withdrew his name, and with.

out coming to any conclusion they adjourned until to-morrow. The New Jersey delegation met and unanimously agreed to tender ex-Gov. Newell the vote of the delegation for Vice President, but he declined the honor. It was then agreed to support Mr. Hamlin. The other delegation at Barnum's are making considerable noise. Their delegation is headed by two ex-Governors and several eloquent speakers. They have a band of music belonging to the 7th Ohio Militia, which were to-day reviewed by the delega-tion in front of Barnum's. Governor Todd asked them what they were to de, and a shout went up in a vote for old Abe. On their banner hung out at the window is the following: "Ohio true to the Union." "Obio has sent 291,932 of her gallant sons to the field." Speeches were made to-night from their balcony to a large crowd, drawn together by eloquent speeches, and were loudly applauded. They are for Governor Dennison for Chairman of the Convention, but have not yet voted for Vice President. They will probably go for Hamlin.

Indiana votes first for Andy Johnson for Vice President Kansas, Missouri, Minnesota and Iowa vote for Hamlin.

Indications are that the following will be agreed upon without much opposition: Temporary Chairman, Rev. Dr. Breckinridge, of porary Chairman, Rev. Dr. Breckinridge, of Kentucky: Permanent Chairman, Governor Itennison, of Ohio; President, A. Lincoln: Vice President, H. Hamlin. The radical delegation from Missouri will probably be admitted, and the Blair conservatives, part of whom are said to be secessionists, will be thrown out.

The delegations fram seceded States will probably be all thrown out. The platform will be very brief, and the Convention will be ready to adjourn by Wednesday night. The Ohio band went around to the Eutaw House to-night to severade the New York delegation and others. H. J. Raymond made a short speech, in which he said that it was the intention of in which he said that it was the intention of the Convention to demonstrate their ability to Government at the same time:

He paid a high tribute to the Presidents ability and efficiency, and was loudly cheered He was followed by Gen. Carey, of Onio, who said that a rebel has but two rights to which he can lay claim; one is a constitutional right, and the other is a Divine right. He has a constitutional right to be hung, and a Divine right to be dammed (Cheering) He continued in an eloquest strain for some time, and was conunually applauded.

DROPOSALS FOR LOAN. TREASURY DEPARTMENT, June 3, 1854. To ensure the greatest possible vigor in the operations of the armies now moving against the insurgents, under brave and skilful Generals, upon a vast theater of operations, expenditures have been increased beyond receipts from revenue and ordinary subscriptions to the National Loan. Sealed offers will therefore be received at this Department under the act of March 3d, 1833, until noon of Wednesday, the 15th of June, 1864, for bonds of the United States to the amount of Seventy-five Millions of Dollars, bearing an annual interest of six per centum, payable semi-annually in coin on the first days of July and January each year, and redeemable after the 30th of June, 1881.

Each offer must be for fifty or one hundred dollars. or some multiple of one hundred dollars, and must state the sum, including premium, offered for each hundred dollars in bonds, or for fifty, when the offer is for more than fifty. FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

A FIGHT SUNDAY NIGHT.

THE REBELS REPULSED AND DRIVEN ACROSS THE CHICKAHOMINY.

A GENERAL FIGHT SUPPOSED TO HAVE COMMENCED YESTERDAY.

The steamer Connecticut, Capt. Stranahan arrived about noon to-day bringing up one thousand and ninety-three wounded from the late engagements, over five hundred of which are very severe cases. One died on the passage up. There are 80 officers on the boat, among whom are Major Rufus Scott, 1st N. Y. Drageons; Captains E. T. Richards, 59th N. Y.; J. A. Cline, 155th Pa.; F. K. Seib, 116th Pa.; and

Lieut B. K. Kimberly, 1st Maine Battery. The Connecticut left the White House at 3% o'clock yesterday, and reports that the enemy attacked a working party of Russell's division, near Hancock's corps, about 8% o'clock the previous (Sunday) night, and the attack caused much firing all along the line, which continued for about an hour and a half, Hancock's corps having handsomely repulsed them, and dislodged them from their works, driving them across the Chickahominy.

There is now no force directly in front of our left this side the Chickahominy. When the Connecticut left it was reported that a general fight had commenced, and firing was distinctly heard all the morning at the White House. General (Baldy) Smith's corps is said to have suffered very severely in the late fights. The 8th New York heavy artillery has also lost very heavily—in one engagement 28 officers and 150 men in killed and wounded.

There were 8,000 wounded at the White House when the Connecticut left. The York and Richmond railroad is now in running order for some miles toward the front. and telegraph communication has been estab. lished between the White House and army headquarters.

FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

The steamers Lizzie Baker and Gen. Hooker, which left the White House late yesterday afternoon, arrived here at 1 o'clock to-day, having on board about four hundred wounded each, quite a number of which are very serious cases. The Gen. Hooker was ordered to return to Alexandria and unload, and the Lizzie Baker yet lies in the stream, not having reached

Reports received at the White House from the front are to the effect that fighting commenced on the Chickahominy early yesterday morning and continued up to noon. At last accounts our forces had succeeded in carrying and holding all the rebel rifle pits on this side of the Chickshominy, but no further particulars were known. Our forces are engaged at the White House in throwing up earthworks, to guard against any attempt of the rebels to interfere with our base supplies. Assistant Secretary War Dana, who is at the White House, states that accounts from the front are of the most cheering character. Rebel prisoners are being brought away from the White House daily, and others continue to arrive from the front in large numbers. There were some four hundred there when these boats left, including officers and men.

The railroad from the White House towards the front is in complete running order for a distance of four miles, and trains are running hourly, without interruption. The hospital tents at the White House are found inadequate to the demand, and many of our wounded are without shelter; but the authorities are using every exertion to remedy this evil as speedily as possible. When the Baker and Hooker left the White House there were about 8,000 wounded there, including many rebels, but there were several transports in readiness to take them on board. BODIES OF OFFICERS BROUGHT UP. The bodies of Col. S. Kellogg, 2d Connecticut heavy artillery; Capt. Samuel McKee, 1st U. S. cavalry; and Capt. J. F. McCullough, 140th Pennsylvania, were brought up from the White House by the steamer Iolis, which arrived here last night. These officers were all killed within the past few days in the battles before Richmond, and their bodies will be forwarded North to their friends. CONVALESCENTS TO BE SENT NORTH. The steamer Ashland, now lying at the Sixth street wharf, is engaged to-day in taking on board the convalescents of the hospitals in and around Washington. It is expected that the

Ashland will sail this evening for New York. where these convalescents will be placed in hospital again. ORDERED TO HARRISBURG. Captain A. Beatty, of the 7th regiment Penn. sylvania Reserves, Acting Assistant Adjutant General at the headquarters Military District of Washington, has been relieved and ordered

SENATE.-Mr. Sumner presented numerous petitions from different States, east and west, for the abolishment of slavery by act of Congress, and stated that the mass of the petitions in this regard, now numbering 300,000, are of the working classes. He added that Illinois was ahead of all other States in the number of these petitions, which was through the seed sown by the ever-faithful Owen Lovejoy, now deceased. The whole were referred to the Committee on Slavery and Freedmen. Mr. Grimes, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported back the bill authorizing the Levy Court of the county of Washington, D. C., to levy a direct tax on the people of the county for their portion of the government tax under the act of Congress of July, 1861, without amendment.

Mr. Sumner, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported on the subject of amending the new treaty laws, asked to be discharged from its further consideration. Agreed to. House.-Mr. Hooper, of Mass., from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill providing ways and means for the sapport of the Government by means of a $400,000,000 loan. The bill was ordered to be printed, and recommitted to the Committee of Ways and Means, with power to report at any time after Monday. The House resumed the consideration of the Senate Gold Bill, proposing to prohibit speculations in coin and bullion.

Mr. Hooper, of Massachusetts, offered an amendment to a substitute for the first section.

Messrs. Gansen and Davis, of New York, and Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, and Mr. Woodbridge, of Vermont, opposed the bill, consider. ing there was no constitutional power to pass it The House debated and then non-concurred in the report of the committee of conference on the disagreeing amendments to the civil and diplomatic appropriation bill. Another committee of conference was asked. The House-yeas 53, nays 47-laid the "Gold Bill," on the table.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION. Rev. Dr. Breckinridge made Temporary Chairman.

BALTIMORE, June 7.—The band of the 2d U. S. Intantry at Fort McHenry is stationed in the gallery, and at noon opened the Convention with an overture. The building was densely packed from floor to ceiling.

Hon. E. D. Morgan, chairman of the National Committee, called the Convention to order making a brief address, in which he renewed the organization of the Republican party 8 years ago, when they nominated Fremont and Day-ton, and the failure to succeed in the election. Nothing daunted, however, by defeat, it was immediately determined "to fight it out upon that line, [cheers and prolonge i applause,] not only if it took all the summer, but through all time, until their principles shall be successful. In 1860 they nominated Abraham Lincoln and Hannibal Hamlin, [cheers,] and you all know how we swept the Union with the great principle of emancipation and liberty emblazoned on our standard. We are now assembled again and at a time when the bones of our brothers and children are bleaching on the Southern soil. We will fall short of accomplishing our great mission if we shall not declare in favor of an amendment to the constitution prohibiting African slavery forever in the United States. [Applause and enthusiastic cheers].

Gov. Morgan then nominated hon. Robert J.
Breckinridge, of Ky., as temporary chairman.
Mr. Breckinridge was conducted to the chair and delivered a neat impressive address, based on his declaration at the outset, that we do not mean to allow this great republic to perish.

He was frequently interrupted by cheers.

On the motion of J. A. Shaw, of Mass., P. H. Duer, of New York, and E. M. Briggs, of California, were appointed secretaries to complete the temporary organization.

Rev. Mr. Reilly was introduced by the chairman, and invoked a Divine blessing upon the proceedings of the convention. On motion of Gen. Cameron, a list of the States were called to furnish the secretary with a list of names of the delegates.

AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN-Probable Infanti cide.—The body of an infant was found floating yesterday in the Potomac, between the fish wharf and aqueduct at Georgetown.

Annual Election .- Yesterday, the lot holders of Oak Cemetery met in the office of the Cemetery and elected officers for the ensuing year. The following gentlemen were elected Trustees: John Marbury, Sr., W. W. Corcoran, T. A. Lazenby and G. W. Beall. Mr. Marbury was elected President by the Trustees.

Col. Morris, U. S. A.—The body of this gallant officer, who was killed in the battle of Friday last near Richmond, Va., has been recovered and brought to Georgetown. It is now undergoing the embalming process at Birch's establishment. Col. NOT TRUE.-The rumor current yesterday and this morning that Lieut. Col. W. O. Drew, of the 2d D. C. volunteers, was killed last week in a skirmish with guerrillas a few miles from Alexandria is not true. Col. Drew was in Washington this morning. The story probably originated in the fact that the post near Edsall's Station was attacked last Saturday night by about thirty guerrillas. Very little fighting was necessary to drive them away to their hiding places, and neither Col. Drew or any of his men were injured. What harm was done to the guerrillas is not known.
